OUR TOP Best Value Bottle Service Packages in Las Vegas

Best Value, All-Inclusive Packages

If you're on a budget, we have some fantastic packages that include all you can eat and drink dinners, deals on gentlemen's clubs, limo service and deals on Bottle Service. We have an entire section dedicated to our top budget packages.

Splitting Bottle Service

We get splitting Bottle Service, and we know there's a market for it because we've seen companies produce an app that does this and we have done it on several occasions when we know that the groups will get along. For example, if we have buddies in from Chicago and a couple in from Chicago, we know both parties will likely mesh. As a team, we would never put two groups together that we don't personally know. Going on an app and expecting that you will get matched with a good group is like rolling the dice and hoping for the best. We would not want to take a chance on ruining your vacation if you don't get paired with a good group.

The Final Word

Be warned, if you're trying to buy super cheap Bottle Service in Las Vegas, the above packages with all-in prices are the best deals. There are no hidden fees and no funny business; the all-in price as listed is exactly what you will pay for in full. A lot of sites out there tell you there's a $600 minimum and then when you get to the club,the cheapest bottle on the menu is $695 with tip, tax and venue fee so you end up paying $1,100 for one bottle. They get you with a bait-and-switch technique.

For $1,400 at Marquee, from the example above, you can have two bottles instead of one when normally two bottles at full price would be around $2,200! By working with us, you just saved yourself $800.

One thing's for sure in Vegas, even if you have three or four people one bottle is never going to be enough for a good night of partying. No matter how little you think you're going to consume, it never works out and you always need more alcohol. The whole point of going out and getting a table is to meet people, and if you meet people, you're going to give them drinks at your table which in turn burns up the alcohol.

You can reserve any of the above deals with a small deposit via a secure PayPal invoice. With PayPal, you are allowed to swipe any credit card and then you're locked in for the evening.
